DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 2, lines 4-5, "said switching pieces" lacks antecedent basis.

Claims 2 and 4 are unclear because these claims are not written in proper idiomatic English, hence the scope of the claims can not be determined.

Appropriate correction is required.

Specification

3. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: Claim 2 includes the limitation of "said switching pieces" not found in the specification.
4. A substitute specification in proper idiomatic English and in compliance with 37 CFR 1.52(a) and (b) is required. The substitute specification filed must be accompanied by a statement that it contains no new matter.

Abstract

5. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the final sentence is awkward and unclear. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1, 3 and 5 are allowed.

Other Prior Art Cited

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to the Applicant's disclosure. US 3323367 to Searle teaches electronics in the handle to measure the pressure exerted on the grip (col. 1 @ 11-13). US 6270434 to Shaw teaches sensors (22) on the handle to monitor body characteristics such as heart beat (col. 2 @ 14-24).
